Dear Vivian:

Enclosed you will find the final copy of this year's Lucile Elliott scholarship announcement and application form. As I have not heard from you, I assume that you had no objection to the draft I had sent you. Mary Green suggested that we inquire a little more into the financial policy of the applicant's library, so I reworded that question. Finally Pearl has assured me that Miss Elliott has been dead for years so I reworded the announcement (but I am still a little worried about this as I could find no evidence of her death in the Law Library Journal and Chapel Hill librarians are known for longevity). With all this incorporated, we cut the stencil and mailed 250 copies to Nancy Kitchen for distribution to all SEALL members. Should you need more copies for distribution yourself, please let me know.

How are you? Any chance of your going to Atlanta for the Class K workshop? It would be good to see you again.

Best regards,

Sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Susan D. Csaky
